

Professional Advancement Learning series presents:

Tips for Teaching... and the big mistakes you can avoid!

December 14, 12:30 – 1:30 PM

Diamond Health Care Centre Lecture Theatre
main floor, room 1020, 2775 Laurel Street

Dr. Jason FORD

- 1. Lunch
- 2. Presentation & Discussion

Learning objectives for CanMEDs roles of Communicator and Scholar.

- Describe the key components of a productive teaching session
- Identify and avoid some of the common mistakes that lecturers make
- Use session objectives and high quality slides to guide your learners

Dr. Jason FORD Dr Jason Ford is an Associate Professor in the UBC Faculty of Medicine, Department of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine. He is head of the division of hematopathology at the BC Children's Hospital. He wears a number of educational hats at UBC including Associate Director of Curriculum in the MD program, Block Chair, Pathology Undergraduate Program Director, and so on. He serves in the Canadian Association of Pathologists as the Chair of both the Education Group and the Continuing Professional Development Committee. His main academic interest is in pathology teaching and pathology recruitment. He says that when he dies, he wants the Vancouver Canucks to be his pallbearers, so that they can let him down one last time.

Receive 1 hr of credit for CME, section 1

Accreditation Statement:

The Pathology Professional Advancement Learning series is a self-approved group learning activity (Section1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification program of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada.